PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Douglas 1914 2¾ HP 350cc.

The well-known ease of operation and the low centre of gravity contributed to the popularity of the Douglas make in the first decades of the 20th century.

Other selling points were quality and reliability.

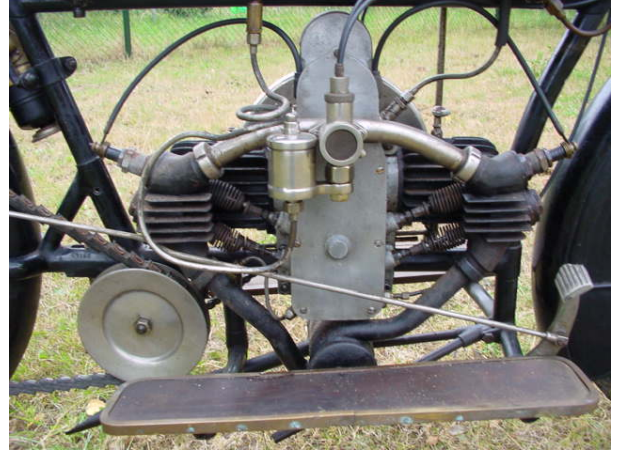

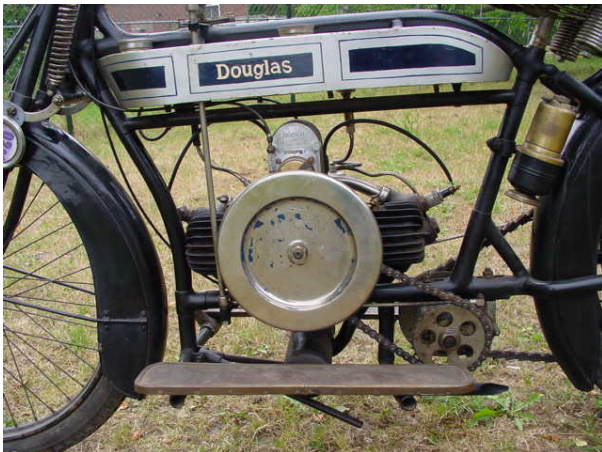

This 2¾ HP Douglas has a 2 speed gearbox and final transmission by belt.

The machine is in good, used condition and was one of the exhibits in the Transport Museum collection on the Isle of Wight for many years.

A pioneer certificate has been issued for this nice Douglas.
